Chemical Society Reviews

rsc.li/chem-soc-rev

Chemical Society Reviews publishes accessible, succinct and reader-friendly articles on topics of current interest in the chemical sciences. The promotion of international and multidisciplinary awareness and cooperation is particularly encouraged. Chemical Society Reviews publishes three article types: tutorial reviews, which present an accessible introduction to the topic; review articles, which provide a deeper evaluation of the current literature; and Viewpoints, which are short, opinion-based articles

Information for Authors

Full details on how to submit material for publication in Chem Soc Rev are given in the Instructions for Authors (available from http://www.rsc.org/authors). Submissions should be made via the journal's homepage: rsc.li/chem-soc-rev

The Editorial board typically commission articles that encourage international, interdisciplinary progress in chemical research. The board welcomes proposals for new tutorial reviews or review articles. Please contact the Editorial office for further details (chemsocrev-rsc@rsc.org). Additional details are available from the Editorial office or http://www.rsc.org/authors

Authors may reproduce/republish portions of their published contribution without seeking permission from the Royal Society of Chemistry, provided that any such republication is accompanied by an acknowledgement in the form: (Original Citation)–Reproduced by permission of the Royal Society of Chemistry.
