Retraction of 'Identification of MIG7, TGM2, CXCL8, and PDGFC as key genes in colon cancer with a bioinformatics-driven strategy for multi-epitope vaccine design' by Zhenhai Jing et al., Mol. Syst. Des. Eng., 2025, <https://doi.org/10.1039/D5ME00104H>.

The Royal Society of Chemistry hereby wholly retracts this Molecular Systems Design & Engineering article due to concerns with the validity of the author details, the authorship of this paper and signs of attempted manipulation of the publication process.

Given the significance of these concerns, the Editor has lost confidence that this paper is reliable.

We have attempted to contact all authors regarding this retraction using the email details provided by the corresponding author at this stage, however we cannot confirm if they are genuine. Yuting Duan, Qing Zhou, Zhenhai Jing, Qing Hong, Yan Wang and Peng Meng have not agreed with the decision to retract.
