We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of RSC Pharmaceutics' reviewers for helping to preserve quality and integrity in pharmaceuticals literature. We would also like to highlight the Outstanding Reviewers for RSC Pharmaceutics in 2025.

Each one of our outstanding peer reviewers has been carefully selected by our editorial team and includes active researchers who have gone above and beyond in their review activity for RSC Pharmaceutics. Building a dependable community of reviewers is of immense value for a new journal and we extend our gratitude for the time and effort all of our reviewers invest in writing a report.

Outstanding Reviewers for RSC Pharmaceutics in 2025 have been hand-picked based on several different measures, including the number, timeliness and quality of the reports provided. We also considered particularly insightful comments within reports, including detailed scientific discussions and opinions on the alignment of the work with the journal's scope and standards.

RSC Pharmaceutics strives to represent the diversity of the pharmaceuticals community, and we would like our reviewer community to reflect that. We are always looking to improve the diversity of our reviewer community in all its forms, and welcome applications for new reviewers through the RSC's Become a Reviewer page.

"The reviewers of RSC Pharmaceutics are fundamental to the journal's success. Their expertise, dedication, and thoughtful evaluations ensure the highest standards of scientific quality and integrity. We extend our sincere thanks for their essential role in supporting rigorous and fair peer review." – Yvonne Perrie, Editor-in-Chief.
